NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 - Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

- a. Organization – The Wood River Valley Studio Tour, Inc. (WRVST), located in Ketchum, Idaho, is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. WRVST was incorporated in the state of Idaho March 21, 2013 and commenced operations in April 2013.
- b. Nature of Activities – A two day open studio event showcasing the artistic talent of the Wood River Valley which includes the cities of Bellevue, Hailey, Ketchum, and Sun Valley, Idaho. The goal is the development of a platform for this community to be recognized nationally for the quality of its local artists along with encouraging people from all walks of life to learn about and appreciate the creative process. In addition to the two day open studio event, WRVST has sponsored an Artist Education Series; Collectors' Education Program; Mosaic Project; a one week Group Exhibition prior to the Tour; Art for All Ages Program focusing on children and senior citizens; and Reception with Artists. All events are free and open to the public.
- c. Basis of Accounting and Presentation – The financial statements are prepared internally on the cash basis of accounting. All net assets are classified as unrestricted since they are not subject to any donor-imposed restrictions. In-kind services and volunteer time contributed without compensation are not recorded on the financial statements.
- d. Depreciation and Amortization – Other Assets include capitalized costs and there is no provision for depreciation or amortization. The capitalized costs are analyzed annually and if determined to be impaired are expensed in the period the impairment occurs.
- e. Income Taxes – WRVST is a non-profit organization and has obtained exemption from federal and state income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and related Idaho State code provisions. The effective date of the exemption is March 21, 2013. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in the financial statements.
